First Sunday of the month

From the Minister

Oh how blessed we are as a congregation on a new journey of faith, growth and health! We are in the summer months which bring warmer weather and a slower pace of living - a time to take stock and re-energize. Children are on vacation and youth are looking for summer employment. Many of you will be going camping on weekends and others will travel to states outside of Michigan to see family members whom they have not seen in over a year due to the pandemic. Some will even have an opportunity to travel internationally to other parts of the world to see family/friends and broaden their world view.

While these events will take place for many, there will be those who will happily remain in Michigan all summer. Though many of you will be vacationing and taking advantage of warm summer days, the church's ministry continues. We will still worship a God of love, justice and mercy. We will care for the sick and dying. The faithful will continue to pray for this church, Oxford Township, the state and the world. The Praise Singers and other musicians will continue to plan for summer worship and beyond. Our social media tools will equip members to creatively reveal ways to tell our story, locally, regionally and nationally. The preached word will be proclaimed. With the leadership of Patty Dennis and laity, The Church Revive task force efforts will move into full gear. We have much to do, but with unrelenting faith in God, sacrifice, obedience and self-giving love, Oxford UMC will succeed in fulfilling its VISION! Recall it with me.....

We envision a church with a vibrant Christian spiritual life where we welcome and value all God's people.....Where we grow, discover and share our gifts in the church and in the world.

In His Holy Name.

The Church “Revived” - Study Groups

MAY 2021

We have completed our book study of a revived church, and were excited to see 20+ people at each meeting. Thanks to everyone who attended! We have already seen several changes at the church with the cry room modernized and the Sanctuary rearranged differently. We are calling the bulletin the program and announcements are called ministry moments. We now have a worship team who will work on making our services vibrant, interesting and run smoothly. These are only small changes but they are a good start. We would love to talk to anyone who has ideas on how to make our church more appealing to guests.

Sue Rizzo & Rosemary Rumbold

Rosemary Rumbold and Sue Rizzo graciously taught many who were excited to learn about how to grow and survive here at Oxford UMC based on the “Anatomy of a Revived Church” book...

- Steps to a Revived Church with Patty Dennis

JUNE 30, 2021

We were privileged to have Patty Dennis give us a presentation on the next steps to becoming a revived church. Here are the highlights:

It was with eager anticipation that twenty plus members of the congregation met with Patty Dennis, facilitator, and Rev. Julius to review what we gleaned from reading the book and to plan for the future. Some of the points were

1. The importance of prayer.
2. The need to look forward not backward.
3. The need to look outward not inward.
4. That Christ must be at the center of everything we do.
5. There is no quick fix.

We then turned our attention to the future.

1. We need to make every guest feel welcome by greeting them, helping them find a seat if necessary, inviting them to coffee and sitting and talking with them.
2. Put fear and blame behind us, and look forward to the future with hope and confidence.
3. Let others see that we are excited about our faith. Then they will be excited too.

4. Develop our own relationship with God. Patty challenged us, by giving us tasks to work on during the summer. We look forward to meeting with her again in September, to continue to seek God’s will for O.U.M.C. and His plan for us in the community.

The following people are on the “Church Revived” Team:

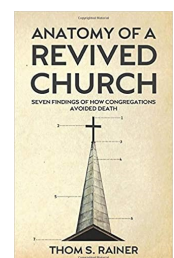

- ◆ Steve and Kathy Laidlaw
- ◆ Sue Rizzo
- ◆ Bernie and Rosemary Rumbold
- ◆ Bill and Christy Turk
- ◆ John Warren
- ◆ Michelle Wood

Steve will be leading the group and for that we thank him.

Please pray for this team as we plan the future for our church. If you have any questions please contact Steve.

2021 MI Annual Conference - A Summary

A Virtual Conference

Kay Demoss - Senior Content Editor

June 5, 2021 | LANSING

Saturday's agenda at the 2021 Michigan Annual Conference included significant time for important legislation.

What a difference a year makes.

As business got underway, Bishop David Bard recalled, "Last year was our first attempt at a virtual annual conference and because we were uncertain about a number of aspects of the technology available to us, I asked persons who had submitted resolutions that went beyond necessary business if they would be willing to withdraw them. I remain very grateful that everyone agreed to do so in 2020." This year, we opened up the resolution process and today we will be focused on addressing resolutions submitted."

The 2020 Resolutions were not considered in legislative committees, as in previous annual conferences. They were addressed by committee of the whole in the plenary session. In 2021, members were assigned to one of eight legislative committees meeting on Tuesday or Wednesday evening on Zoom. At 6:00 pm Thursday evening, members had a Legislative Report in the inbox detailing the legislative committee action on each resolution. While Legislative Coordinator Diane Brown was not at the lectern as in previous years, she was working mightily behind the scenes. In 2020, members voted on "essential" legislation on July 27 on a paper ballot, which they then returned by U.S. Mail. Those ballots were counted on August 28 and announced by Bishop Bard on September 7, 2020. Members of the 2021 Annual Conference voted electronically, which meant the results of votes were immediately known.

On Saturday morning, the bishop reminded members of Robert's Rules of Order and the Rules of the Annual Conference and then noted, "I am committed to both keeping the process moving and to making sure we are not moving so quickly as to lose people. We will be patient with each other as we do our work."

More familiar with use of Zoom technology, after a year's worth of practice, clergy and lay members entered into debate with enthusiasm.

A list of actions taken on resolutions may be found here: [Summary of actions on resolutions - The Michigan Conference \(michiganumc.org.\)] For detailed understanding consult:

- the Resolutions found in the 2021 Michigan Annual Conference Program Guide.
- the actions taken by the eight committees available in the 2021 Michigan Annual Conference Legislation Report.

Bishop Bard Appeals for Disaster Funds

Record rainfall the weekend of June 26-27 has left many in Michigan recovering from flooding of homes and churches. Bishop Bard appeals for gifts to the MI Conf. Disaster Response Fund.

Dear Friends in Christ in the Michigan Conference,

Last week I presided over the Minnesota Conference. When we left to travel to Minnesota, the state of Michigan was in the midst of a drought, significant in some places. Over this past weekend, the state moved from drought to deluge.

Flooding has been particularly severe in the wider Detroit metropolitan area with flooded basements and closed interstates. Wayne and Washtenaw counties seem to be the epicenter of the damage. In addition, tornadoes struck other parts of the state, though the majority thankfully touched down in low-populated areas.

In his letter to the Corinthian Jesus community, Paul writes about our interconnectedness in Jesus Christ that when one part of a body suffers, all suffer with it (I Corinthians 12:26). There is a truth there about our shared humanity. When there is suffering, we are invited to feel it, know it and respond to it in the name and spirit of Jesus.

Our tendency in such situations is often to respond by showing up. While there are some limited opportunities for direct assistance right now, I would encourage you to consider a gift to the Michigan Conference Disaster Response Fund as an initial response to this storm damage and flooding. To donate by check, please give to [Oxford UMC and put "MI Conference Disaster Response Fund" on the memo line] Those wishing to donate online may do so here.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration and for your ongoing prayers for those whose lives have been affected by this recent weather, weather which may continue to adversely affect even more people the rest of the week.

Our Michigan Conference staff and our Disaster Response Coordinator, Dan O'Malley, will keep us updated on ways we can continue to help... A semi filled with 2,080 Cleaning Kits arrived from Sager Brown Depot in Baldwin, LA this morning... We will be looking for more buckets (cleaning kits) soon. I invite you to watch for further information. I also invite you to review the Michigan Conference website for general information on disaster response.

When The United Methodist Church responds to disasters, our expertise through UMCOR is long-term disaster recovery. After the initial response phase, which often gets the most media attention, comes the long-term work of disaster recovery, helping people put their lives back together through direct aid and help with accessing additional resources. Know that...we are in this for the long haul. Thank you for all the ways you reach out to hurting people and a hurting world in the name of Jesus Christ.

Stewardship & Finance Update

Christian Stewardship is the responsible use of our time, treasure and talents to advance the Kingdom and it provides an opportunity to witness taking our faith and joy into the world - beyond the walls of the church building. During the last year, the church and our congregation have experienced some very unprecedented times and it has been challenging for most. The Church would like to take a moment to recognize and thank our dedicated parishioners for continuing to faithfully support Oxford UMC with their time, treasure and talents throughout all of the obstacles and challenges we have faced. We are so excited to be able to have in-person services again and have it fill the void that has been missing for so many of us. We look forward to seeing you!

We as a Finance team keep track of giving and expenses each month. Thank you for your faithfulness. Please help monthly with our General Fund.

Thomas Cook Education Scholarship Award

Thomas Cook is a graduate of Kalamazoo College and will enroll in Syracuse University in the fall, where he plans to earn a master's degree in sports media. He is a fine young Christian with strong faith, a Methodist background and a firm belief in the Gospel with Jesus as his savior. Baptized and worshipping in the Grand Blanc area, Tom applied for a scholarship from Oxford UMC, and at a meeting of the Church Council, his application was considered and approved. He is unfortunately the sole applicant for a scholarship this year. This award will be funded from Oxford UMC, leaving the Conner-Wood funds untouched for the future.

It is great that we can reach outside the church into the community and assist a fellow believer in pursuit of his goals. Who knows where his future lies, but we can be sure his life will touch many, all for the better! Tom is an Eagle Scout, has participated in and led youth services, and helped out at Flint South End soup kitchen. He was active in a Christian ministry: Athletes in Action (AIA) during his time at Kalamazoo College, and he anticipates further involvement in AIA while at Syracuse. (FYI - Syracuse University is affiliated with the United Methodist Church.) Please plan to attend church on Sunday, August 22 and welcome Tom and his family. The scholarship will be presented and he will address the congregation.

To Facebook or Not Facebook? That is the question!

I am in the “social media” generation. Well, I almost got past it. It can be a great tool when you want to be connected with family and friends that are not local. It can be quite the distraction when you need to get laundry done but you are too “busy” scrolling through the pages.

I am writing to share two great ways to reach out to our community about our wonderful church; one way uses Facebook and one way does not. I am pretty sure you would fit into one of these categories.

First, to all the Facebook users. And keep in mind, if you don't use Facebook, maybe you have a relative or friend that does and they could help you share the news on their page! Oxford UMC is represented on Facebook with our very own page! It shows our beautiful church at the top and lots on information throughout. You may already be a part of the page but if you are not, you can search it by the web address or the title:

Web: www.facebook.com/OxfordUnitedMethodist or Search within Facebook: “Oxford UMC”

You can “like” our page to start seeing all of the posts. But “seeing” our post is simply not enough. Just as you are an active member of the church, we need you to be an active promoter of the church. And it all happens with a click of the mouse! You can comment and “share” the page. “Sharing” the page means you are sharing our post to all of your friends and family (see how in the images). And just like seeing pictures of yummy food over and over from a restaurant, eventually you will want to try it out. Maybe we are not a decadent crème brulee or double chocolate cake, but no one will know all that we have to offer the community and our congregation until we “share” the good news.

Not a Facebook user? Not a problem! We still need you to be an active promoter of our amazing church community that wants to help the people of Oxford and beyond! Make it a point to “sprinkle” in the Oxford United Methodist Church name or happenings in your conversations. Yes, you should talk about your children and your grandchildren. But make sure to mention that you are excited about the movement of our church, the upcoming outdoor service, and youth activities that are coming! Make it a goal to share information with at least 5 people a week. Maybe you are talking with your hairdresser and 3 other people in the salon hear your news about the church. Maybe you are eating lunch with a friend and mention your experience at the “Sing Along” at the church. There are so many possibilities to “share” even without Facebook.

We, the active attendees of this church that care so much about it and our community, have to step up and get the word out. It takes all of us! Not just the staff, the Pastor, and/or the teams. We ALL want to keep these doors open! Let's make sure we are bringing people in those open doors by sharing the good news – we are growing!! Everyone is welcome to come grow with us!

Christy Turk

Prayer

“I will pray for you.” Have you ever said those words to someone, meaning them at the time and then you got busy with your life and forgot to keep praying for them? Do you pray when you go to sleep? Maybe something you were taught to say when you were a child but now it is just one of those things you do without hardly thinking about it. If a loved one is sick or your life isn't working out the way you think it should, do you pray hard but just kind of stop for a while? Except for Sunday morning, of course? To tell you the truth, most Christians pray this way. It can be hard to do in the day to day scheme of things - but this is what we forget... God never stops trying to connect with us. Prayer is the conduit we use to have a relationship with our loving Father. And as a loving parent, God understands. But in the end we are the ones missing out.

thank and praise God and then he asks for what he needs, tells God what is going on in his life, creates that relationship, and then thanks and praises God again because he trusts him to take care of things.

Pray without ceasing - talk to God about your day, tell him about the bad driver who cut you off, look for the blessings and wish those who upset you well, pray for the Father's love to fill every area of your life. Do it enough and you will be able to forgive the unforgiveable. Not because evil is ok, but because you need to be healed and God can do that.

Thank God for all things - find the silver lining and you will start to leave your selfishness [thinking about your self and your problems] behind. You will start praying for others, daily, constantly - you will even seek out people to pray for. It is at this stage that you will need to start praying for Oxford UMC and the whole church. It becomes a Holy Spirit given longing to connect with God.

If you have a need to pray for Oxford UMC we are looking for a few of you. Oxford UMC will only revive and grow with people praying hard. If you love Oxford UMC and you are willing to pray for its missions and vision we need you. Join a few others, walk through the church, sit in the Sanctuary and pray for the revival. Please let the church office or Pastor Julius know you are being led to do this. His will be done.

Rejoice always; pray without ceasing; in everything give thanks; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Praying was considered so important to our Lord Jesus Christ that he taught us the right way to pray in The Lord's Prayer. The first thing he does in this prayer is to Questions, contact Mary Garrard (810-797-5840)

Here are the items that have been printed recently...

- ◇ That Pastor Julius has a twin sister, Judy? Judy has an extensive knowledge of hymns and enjoys choosing the ones we sing most Sundays. We are very grateful to her for this ministry. If you would like us to sing one of your favorite hymns, please fill out the form on the back [of the program] and submit to the office by placing it in the offering plate. What a joy it is to praise in song!!!
- ◇ That Oxford United Methodist Church is generous? Just as you are generous to Oxford United Methodist, the church is also called to be generous to the community and to the world. This year we have been able to give monetarily to our local Love In the Name of Christ (aka Love INC) which together with other churches and groups in the area helps those less fortunate when they are struggling [call 248-693-4357 or go to www.loveincfnoc.org if you or someone you know needs help]. We have also given monetarily to the FISH Food Pantry, UMCOR (the United Methodist Committee on Relief), World Communion Sunday and our Easter offering went to our Conference Ministry Shares. Thank you for having a heart for others!
- ◇ That Oxford United Methodist Church loves to hear the Bell Choir? Did you know that the handbells are bronze, being 80% copper, 20% tin, mixed with small amounts of zinc and lead? Did you know that the bells are cast in different sizes and thickness, and this determines the pitch? These are just a few of the many things you may learn about our wonderful Bell Choir! We thank them for their beautiful ringing and look forward to hearing them when they resume in the fall!
- ◇ That Oxford UM Church has people who practice Campanology? Do you know what campanology means? It's the art of handbell ringing. In 400 A.D. in Campania, Italy, a Bishop was looking for a way to call the people of the village together for an emergency or to make announcements. He knew that banging metal made a loud noise, and the higher you raised the metal the more the sound carried. He ordered a very large metal pot to be made, to hang from the top of the church, and he ordered it to be hit forcefully with a hammer when he wanted people to assemble. Bells have come a long way since then! True story? Probably not as there is a record of bells in existence dating back to 1000-2000B.C. in China. Many years ago, Ro Van Wagoner was at a bell performance, and she knew immediately that she would like Oxford UM Church to own bells and have a bell choir. An appointment was set up with a Malmark representative who came to the church. Plans were made and before long we had bells and two bell choirs. After our summer break, the bell choir will be back to play on the third Sunday of the month. (If you would like to be part of the bell choir please give me a call at (248)563-3977. Rosemary Rumbold)
- ◇ That Oxford UM Church Supports the CROP Walk? CROP Walk / Hunger Walk continues to fight against the challenges of disease, disaster, displacement and other concerns that leave people hungry. 50% of donated funds goes to local missions and 50% goes to worldwide missions. Oxford United Methodist Church donated $345 (Thank You!!) and the United Methodist Men donated $155 for a total of $500 this year - well done all!! This means that we are feeding our neighbors here and around the world.
- ◇ That We Are Inviting People to be a part of Sunday Morning Worship & Fellowship? If you are wishing to serve and have a heart for welcoming people to Oxford United Methodist Church, or maybe you like to bake cookies, or see that the candles are lit, or want to be a Youth Disciple, or how about singing? There are many ways you may share your gifts here. There will be training classes this fall for Ushers, Greeters, Acolytes and Lay Readers and you may serve in other ways by contacting the church office and Becky will direct you to the right person. Yummm - Bakers and people interested in helping at Coffee Hour can contact Carol Hauxwell as soon as possible! Let's share our gifts in the church and in the world and live our vision!
- ◇ That Pastor Julius will soon be visiting upon request? Pastor Julius is really looking forward to traveling with Laity to visit those who request a home or hospital visit. If you are interested in having a visit please call Becky in the church office at 248-628-1289 during office hours (Monday-Thursday 8:30am - 1:30pm) or shoot her an email.
- ◇ That Oxford UMC is very generous? We are so grateful to everyone who gave from the heart to our brave Oxford Firefighters in honor of International Firefighters Day. In just two Sundays we were able to raise $741.00! What a wonderful act of Christian Outreach for our community. Here is a photo of Rev. Julius with Oxford Fire Chief Jack at the presentation of the check...

We are so grateful for their willingness and ask that you keep them in prayer!

The Power of Listening

“The most basic and powerful way to connect to another person is to listen,” says Dr. Rachel Naomi Remen, author and integrative medicine professor. “Perhaps the most important thing we ever give each other is our attention.”

Twice in Mark 4, while teaching, Jesus urges, “Let anyone with ears to hear listen” (verses 9 & 23, NRSV). One way we show what Jesus means to us is by truly listening to his word — not just hearing sounds but being attentive and intentional. Likewise, one way we love and serve others is by respectfully listening to them: not assuming we know what they feel or mean or will say; not planning what to say even as they’re still speaking, but listening deeply to learn about them and their experience.

We often think living our faith calls for great accomplishments or worldwide reach. But Dr. Remen says, “A loving silence often has ... power to heal and to connect.” Don’t underestimate something as basic and doable as listening as a way to practice Christ-like love.

Have You Noticed Something Different?

If you have had a chance to take a look around the church and in the Sanctuary recently you may have seen that a few things are different. Some of these things have been changed for the summer, like the chairs being in the round -

But other things are being changed because we need to grow and become more welcoming to our guests. We ask your patience as we figure out what works for the best. We are not changing things just for the sake of changing things - we are attempting to live out our vision.

Take a moment to say it out loud -

"We envision a church with a VIBRANT spiritual life where we WELCOME and VALUE ALL God's people... Where we GROW, DISCOVER, and SHARE our gifts in the church and in the world"

Let's press on and even if it may be uncomfortable or not the way we have done things in the past, remain focused on our goal.

We are headed for revival!
